Our verdict on the Saab 9-3 Convertible 1.8t Vector. There are better convertibles on the market - better in terms of offering a sporty drive, that is. However, Saab's 9-3 combines good looks with ease of use and the simple fact that it's not an Audi A4, BMW 3 Series or Mercedes CLK. For many, this last factor is reason enough to go for the Saab.

Saab has been building convertibles for many years but the concept has remained the same - a four-seat soft-top that can be used all the year round. The 9-3 Convertible is the company's most desirable model, helped by its neat styling and understated image. While folding hard-tops are becoming more widespread, the Saab's soft-top still impresses.
