Penn State | College of Engineering On the advisement of the Faculty Senate Council, Penn State Executive Vice President and Provost Nicolas P. Jones approved the separation of the Department of Mechanical and Nuclear Engineering into two independent departments: the Department of Mechanical Engineering and the Ken and Mary Alice Lindquist Department of Nuclear Engineering.

Department of Mechanical and Nuclear Engineering

Mechanical engineering differs from mechanical engineering technology in that it emphasizes the math and science behind the theoretical development of engineering analysis and design process principles rather than the application of these principles.

Recommended Academic Plans. Penn State and the College of Engineering provide a variety of academic planning resources including the Undergraduate Bulletin, sample academic plans, and flow charts by major. The Schedule of Courses also lists pre-requisites and concurrent courses. It is important to keep in mind that these plans show only one way...
