The Porsche 993 is the internal designation for the Porsche 911 model manufactured and sold between January 1994 and early 1998 (model years 1995-1998 in the United States), replacing the 964. Its discontinuation marked the end of air-cooled Porsches. The 993 was much improved over, and quite different from its predecessor. According to Porsche, every part of the car was designed from the ...

Porsche Classic has now remedied this situation for the Porsche 356 A with its new edition of brake drums for both axles, which are exactly the same as the original equipment of the 1950s. Because instead of a like-for-like replacement, owners previously only had two options, as required. Either to use the 356 B brake drum, which involved considerable time and cost and didn't retain the ...
