So like The Truth About Forever, my last book, Just Listen has a lot going on. There's modeling, music, family dynamics, and even bacon. It also brings back a few people those of you who have read my other books might recognize, and I hope will be happy to see again. No writing process is ever easy, and this book took a lot out of me.

Just Listen by Sarah Dessen

Ok so i absolutely love the way Sarah Dessen writes her books, my only complaint is that it gets old. Ive read lock and key, along for the ride, and what happened to goodbye before i read just listen. I loved all of them, its just that they were all the same story: girl feels lonely. Meets a guy. They start hanging out.
