is samsung and sprint really eyeing the gingerbread and plan on skipping froyo all together? I have no beef with that but why don't they let someone know so that I don't leave sprint for a better 4g network(lte), I am so very frustrated with sprint saying 30 days to froyo I was ready to disconnect my line and pay the 200, what exactly are they thinking?

I have the Epic 4G which had been a total nightmare the first two weeks I had it and 3 exchanges because the techs could not fix it. Although somewhat more stable I was wondering what are the advantages of rooting the phone and if Gingerbread does come out, (something I really doubt will happen) will you have to bring your phone back to stock?
